JOB ID NO.: 0015-JAM
CLOSING DATE: 26th September 2021
CATEGORY: Individual Consultancy
POST TYPE: Non-rotational
LOCATION: UNFPA – Jamaica
DURATION: approximately 2.5 months
ORGANIZATIONAL UNIT: UNFPA Sub-regional Office for the Caribbean

Purpose of Consultancy

To prepare materials and provide training to Parish Justice Centres (PJs) staff in order to contribute to improving their capacities to better provide justice services to survivors of violence against women and girls (VAWG); and ultimately, ensuring that survivors of VAWG have access to available, readily accessible, and quality essential and survivor-centred justice services.

Scope of work

Under the supervision of the Ministry of Justice and Spotlight response team and with technical support from UNFPA, the consultant will:

Phase 1: Prepare a Protocol for the staff of the PJs to follow when offering services to address the needs of survivors of VAWG accessing the PJs, in line with the survivor centred approach and international standards and good practices.

Phase 2: Informed by the Protocol drafted during Phase 1, prepare a training package to train the staff of the PJs, Justice Training Institute (JTI), and Legal Aid Council (LAC) on VAWG and best practices and protocols to follow when offering services to address the needs of survivors of VAWG accessing justice services available at the PJs, in line with the survivor centred approach and international standards.

Phase 3: Deliver a training of trainers (TOT) to approximately twenty (20) trainers' representatives of the following institutions: the PJs of the Spotlight Initiative parishes, Justice Training Institute (JTI), and LAC, thus creating capacities to replicate the training, and validating the training package.

Phase 4: Reporting

After the finalization of all training sessions, the consultant will draft a report.
