

Spotlight Initiative
To eliminate violence against women and girls

Initiated by the European Union and the United Nations:

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR INDIVIDUAL CONSULTANT

FOR CONSULTANT TO SERVE AS
Spotlight Programme Officer within the Ministry of Human Services & Social Security
Hiring Office	UNFPA Sub-regional Office for the Caribbean, Guyana
Purpose of Consultancy:	The European Union and the United Nations have launched the Spotlight Initiative, a multi-year program aimed at addressing all forms of violence against women and girls (VAWG), and harmful practices. It will follow a transformative and evidence-based approach, addressing unequal power relations between men and women and focusing on gender equality and women’s empowerment, as well as ending impunity for VAWG. In line with the principles of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, the Initiative will follow a human rights-based approach and take into consideration the specific needs of women and girls who experience multiple and intersecting forms of discrimination and uphold the principle of “leaving no one behind.” The Spotlight Initiative aims to support transformative change on the ground to end violence against women and girls, in numerous countries globally, including Guyana. The initiative comes with the highest level of commitment globally and will be governed by the UN Deputy Secretary General and the Vice President of the EU Commission. The Guyana Spotlight programme provides a unique opportunity to address family violence as a major public health and development issue with significant ramifications at the individual, community and national levels. Under the leadership of the Government of Guyana and the UN Resident Coordinator’s office, the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF), the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UNWOMEN), and other UN organizations, will lead efforts to address five key priority areas that target family violence against women and girls in Guyana. These five priority areas of intervention, under the Guyana Spotlight programme are: (i) Sexual and Gender-Based Violence; (ii) School based Gender-Based Violence; (iii) Intimate Partner Violence; (iv) Incest/ early sexual initiation/ teen and pre-teen pregnancies; (iv) forced sex by a family member or relative.
